

Editorial

Dear reader,

Maska issue number 100 is a “do-it-yourself” gift to you. We invite you to fill in the blanks we have left for you. Different generations have been writing this journal for you, starting in the year 1920-21, and then continuously from 1985 to today. If you like it, you can send it to Maska. In the year 2023, when the 100th issue of Maska is due to be published, we will exhibit all the home-made Maskas that were sent in. We will celebrate the publication of Maska no. 200 at an event called “Maska 100,” which will take place September 20 to 24, in Ljubljana, Slovenia. This is the last issue of Maska edited by me, Emil Hrvatin, and the editorial board formed in 1998. I would like to thank my colleagues on the editorial board, as well as all the contributors, for their inspiring and creative collaboration. Starting in the year 2007, the new editor-in-chief will be Katja Praznik. I wish her and the new editorial board many exciting adventures.

Thank you for your confidence.
