Miss Mobile can be performed in english, italian, slovenian and croatian.

Important notes:

The performers in Miss Mobile are:

Mobile Moderator (Janez Janša) – talks with virtual protagonists

Mobile Portraitist (Sašo Vrabič) – portraits virtual protagonists

Dossier Maker – writes down notes from conversations.

The organizer should provide a person experienced in working in PowerPoint software or at least experienced to work in different softwares. The organizer takes care that the Dossier Maker meets other 2 artists as soon as they arrived to the performance venue.

The Mobile Moderator asks audience to call their friends, colleagues etc. and lends 6-8 cell phones from them. The Mobile Moderator holds all 6-8 lines on for about 45 minutes. If the organizer expects that might cause problems during the performance, he should provide financial or any other compensation for that phone calls to the cell phones owners.

The organizer should inform audience that they might be asked to lend their cell phones to the performer. The organizer should warn spectators in advance to fill in the batteries of their cell phones.

The organizer should inform Maska about the dominant cell phones brands in the area at least 14 days before the date of performance.

The performance should be announced in all public presentation as:
